CHAPLAINS AMONG US

Did you know that here at Peralta Memorial UMC we have chaplains among us? Indeed, we do! You might even recognize some of their names:

Danene Eager
Marlow Frasier
Connie Irwin
Warren Janke

Micky Killough
Beverley Nilles
Wayne Sharp

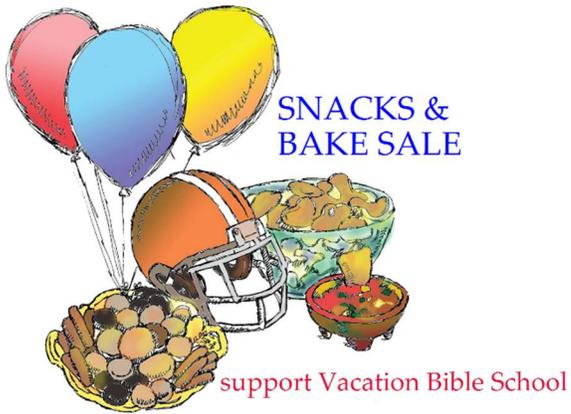

All of the people listed above have completed a five-day chaplain training by the International Fellowship of Chaplains (IFOC). They have given of their time and money to participate in this training and be licensed as chaplains. They have learned how to help people in immediate crisis and how to come beside people with daily needs, and they are ready to serve others. Many of them are already serving our community in chaplain roles. Additionally, Melodie Huff has served as a chaplain in the past, and she will be also be assisting us in pastoral care.

A couple weeks ago I met with these chaplains and we looked over our church directory. We looked for folks who could use a visit or two or some ongoing pastoral care. As your pastor, I love visiting you, but there is only one of me for hundreds of you. Our chaplains are stepping up to help make home, hospital, and nursing home/assisted living visits. I will still be out visiting, too, as pastoral care is one of my favorite parts of my job as pastor. Some of you may soon be receiving contact from a chaplain, and if you would like to be visited by a chaplain or know someone who would, just let the church office know.

The word "chaplain" comes from the Latin word cappella, meaning cape. In medieval times, St. Martin of Tours, France, shared his cape with a beggar one cold winter night. (from Federation of Fire Chaplains Training Manual, 2005 Edition, p. 16).

Please join me in giving thanks for our chaplains as they share their "capess" of care with the people of our church and community.

AfterShock Youth Group

“Turning the hearts of youth and families to God and each other”

Please keep the Aftershock youth in prayer for the upcoming Ignite youth led conference on February 6. This is the 16th annual Ignite conference held right here in Valencia County, and is hosted by Youth Net which is a unified effort of Youth ministers and churches throughout the county and El Paso. We have generally about 300 youth in attendance and will be gathering this year at the First Baptist Church of Bosque Farms. Some of our youth will be leading workshops and could use to be lifted up for the event. CJ and Shelby, Kylie and Nick, Luke and Chris are the teams who have stepped out in faith to lead workshops of various topics. PMUMC is also hosting King's Kids El Paso for a two-night stay at our church and making breakfast for about 57 on Sunday morning. Have I mentioned lately how awesomazing the Aftershock youth are?

CCYM (Conference Council for Youth Ministries) winter camp will be held February 12-14 and we will be taking about 8 High school youth, as well as Bernice and Marlow to be blessed by a youth led camp. We learn a great deal on leadership roles within the body of Christ and get some great mountain top time with God and youth from around the UM world, and the food is not like your normal camp food, it is fantastical!

ROC (Rhythm of Christ) camp for mid high students with be held March 4-6 and is led by the NMSU Wesley Foundation. If you have mid high students that would like to attend please let Marlow know so that we can plan for it. If we don't know who wants to go, we can't make the plan. Thanks! (Marlow's phone number is 480-3621).

Crafty Ladies meet on the first Tuesday and Wednesday of the month from 9:00 AM until about 2 PM in Fellowship Hall. So the next meetings will be held on February 2nd & 3rd. Please come to craft and fellowship with us and stay for lunch, too! We would love to see some new faces and have more ideas and new energy as we begin work on another bazaar. You do not need to be "crafty" in order to fit in. There are lots of support jobs; & there truly is something for everyone to contribute!

For any of you who donate items for us, we are in the need of both 8 and 10 ounce jelly jars or maybe you can return the empty jars from food you bought at the last bazaar. Donations can be brought on the days that we meet, please. Thank you!

For more information about Crafty Ladies call Lois Meadors at 865-6791, Kelley Green at 865-6975 or the church office, 865-9334.

Parents and Children Together

A great group of parents, babies, toddlers and preschoolers have been meeting at Daniel Fernandez Memorial Park or Gym, at 1103 Hwy 314 in Los Lunas at 10:00 AM- Noon on the third Thursday of each month for play-time & parenting fellowship.

All parents, grandparents, or caregivers are invited to join us for a morning of play, fellowship and food. Children play and parents "hang out" together and maybe make plans for the future. We eat at about 11:00 AM! We ask everyone to bring something to share to add to the meal.

The group had an enjoyable time at the Bugg Light Display in Belen during Christmas time, and is planning some future outings! We have a great group attending, but would like get more participation from our church and get the information to other parents and children in the community. We are very excited about this and hope all of you will help us get the word out AND KEEP US IN YOUR PRAYERS!

Our goal is to create a community of families with young children that will support each other, pray for each other, and reassure each other that we are not alone in the joys and challenges of raising young kids. This has already started to a very successful degree but we know it can grow!

If you are interested in this outreach ministry, please let us know -- or for more information contact Breanne Green at 350-1365, Chris Knox at 865-7864, Pastor David or the church office at 865-9334.

Hymn History

My Jesus, I Love Thee-1864

“We love Him because He first loved us.” I John 4:19

“The young people of today are utterly dissolute and disorderly,” fumed grumpy old Martin Luther in the sixteenth century. The philosopher Plato agreed. “The youth are rebellious, pleasure-seeking, and irresponsible,” he wrote. “They have no respect for their elders.” Socrates complained, “Children now love luxury. They have bad manners, contempt for authority. They show disrespect for elders, and love chatter.”

A 6000 year-old Egyptian tomb bears this inscription: “We live in a decadent age. Young people no longer respect their parents. They are rude and impatient. They inhabit taverns and have no self-control”

The next time you think the “modern generation” is going from bad to worse, remember that God always has a rich handful of teenage heroes ready to change the world. In Bible times, we read of Joseph the dreamer, Daniel in Babylon, David the giant-killer, and the Virgin Mary (likely still a teen).

As a teenager, Charles Spurgeon preached to great crowds, but when they referred to his youthfulness, he replied, “Never mind my age. Think of the Lord Jesus Christ and His preciousness.”

In our own day, we’ve been deeply moved by young people like 17-year-old Cassie Bernall of Littleton, Colorado, who was shot for her faith during the Columbine tragedy.

Some of our greatest hymns were also written by young adults. Isaac Watts wrote most of his most memorable hymns at about the age of 19. When poet John Milton was 15, he wrote the well-known “Let Us with a Gladsome Mind.” The hymn “Work for the Night Is Coming” was written by an 18-year-old. And this hymn of deep devotion, “My Jesus, I Love Thee,” was written by William Ralph Featherston at age 16. Sixteen!!

Featherston was born July 23, 1846, in Montreal. He died in the same city 26 years later. His family attended the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and it seems likely that William wrote this hymn as a poem celebrating his conversion to Christ. Reportedly, he sent it to an aunt living in California, and somehow it was published as an anonymous hymn in a British hymnal in 1864.

Little else is known about the origin of the hymn or its author, but that’s all right. It’s enough just to know that God can change the world through anyone—regardless of age—who will say, “My Jesus, I love Thee, I know Thou art mine. For Thee, all the follies of sin I resign.”

(Story taken from Then Sings My Soul, by Robert J. Morgan.)

Growing in Blessedness, that is the theme for 2016 for the United Methodist Women and for our unit, Mary Circle. Come and see what it is all about at our meeting on Tuesday, February 9th at 9:30 AM in Fellowship Hall. Maybe our bulletin board in the hallway of Fellowship Hall will help you understand the purpose of UMW---We promote mission work throughout the world.

Our meetings are designed to be very informal with plenty of time for fellowship and sharing and refreshments. One way to grow in blessedness is prayer and we have put the emphasis on prayer by opening every meeting with prayer time.

Sylvia Regelbrugge will serve as our hostess and also lead devotions for us on February 9th. We hope to see you then! We are growing in membership and would love to include you! (Please note the announcement about the Spiritual Retreat, you can learn more at the meeting.) For more information call Chris Knox at 865-7864 or the Church office.

Attention all Ladies: This information just came in--

LOGOS

Our second semester of LOGOS is well underway. We had two new kids our first night and 5 new kids our second night and we are having a great time connecting and building Christian relationships with our LOGOS kids.

Family Time is definitely a favorite and this past week we got to celebrate the birthday of one of our LOGOS kids by lighting candles on a cake and singing Happy Birthday after we all had dinner. The Table Families are bonding well and all of our Table Parents are doing a fantastic job getting to know their table families and leading them through the dinner hour. Our Dinner Dean is doing an outstanding job at keeping us all on task during Family Time and the games Dinner Dean David comes up with are a great delight to all the table families.

We were able to add Pre-School to our LOGOS Program this semester and Ashley Uptain is leading our most little ones. They are having a ball and so excited that they are part of LOGOS too and not having to stay in the nursery all evening. In fact, we had two new pre-schoolers this past week. Ashley could use an assistant so if you are feeling led to work with our most little ones, please give Julieanne or Robyn a call so that we can discuss and pray with you about that.

If your child is not participating in LOGOS yet or if you know of some kids that are needing a touch from God, please pray about bringing them to try out LOGOS on a Tuesday afternoon. Remember, we start at 3:30 so that kids have an hour to complete their homework (for those kids who need to get homework done or who need to arrive early) and then start LOGOS at 4:30. We would love to have them come and see what it is all about. We now have other activities for kids to do as well if they need to come early but do not have homework.

This past week we had a new girl come and I said wow it is so nice to have you here....she replied "well I don't know that I will be coming back because I need to see what it's like first." I told her that that was a very good plan and guess what...by the end of the evening she informed her mom she definitely wanted to come back and she was registered for LOGOS. We so want to share this ministry with as many children as we can so don't forget to mention our mid-week miracle to all you know.

We would also love to have you come and experience LOGOS as well. Please know that all of the congregation are always invited to come and visit to see what is happening at LOGOS on a Tuesday evening, or if you would like to just come and have dinner with us, we welcome you for that time as well.

Blessings to all and thank you for your awesome prayers and support for God's LOGOS ministry.
