The Flame

We Serve Christ So All Will Follow Him

OUR NEW VISION – DISCIPLESHIP

This past Saturday morning members of our church's Administrative Council and interested church members gathered at the Beulah retreat center in Peralta. We talked together. We prayed and ate together. We shared Scripture together. We thanked God for the Sandhill Cranes and Canada Geese that inspired us with their beauty. Together we sought the will of God for our church.

After several hours of prayer and discussion a common theme emerged: discipleship. We agreed that ministries like LOGOS, the men's and women's recovery academies, the Food Pantry, Scouting, Grief Share, etc., are all important and bringing vitality to our church. We were thrilled with these ministries and determined to pursue excellence in them, always striving to make them better. However, as a church this year we dared to dream really big. Here is our really big vision for 2016:

Peralta Memorial United Methodist Church is on fire for Jesus Christ, growing disciples to serve the Church, the Community and future generations.

In the church we like to throw that word disciple around and smile and nod. "Of course we are making disciples," we say as we note the number of people attending worship and activities. A disciple, though, is a follower of Jesus – not a person who simply agrees with Jesus. In the book Building a Discipling Culture, author Mike Breen uses the terms Information, Imitation, and Innovation. We live in an information culture. There is more information immediately available to us now than at any other time in history. Yet information is where most churches stop. Churches usually teach people about Jesus in worship, Sunday School, and other classes and then send them on their way, free to choose whether or not to act on what they have learned.

However, Jesus's disciples did more than agree with Him; they followed Him wherever He went and they learned to do what He did. Albeit imperfectly, they exemplified their teacher – teaching, preaching, healing, driving out demons, and founding the very first church. Far more than simply agreeing with Jesus, they imitated their rabbi. The political and social conditions around Jesus' disciples were rapidly changing, though, and they had to innovate, building upon what they had already learned from Jesus Christ to make their new church effective. They established new rules and new ways of doing things.

This is our church's bold vision behind that one word – disciple. We want to teach people how to follow Jesus Christ, encourage them to imitate a life of Christian devotion and service, and set them free to innovate to bring a truly Christian way of live to our ever-changing world. This is a tall order and a great big vision. It will involve mentoring, vulnerability, undoubtedly mistakes and do-overs, and most of all courage. Our vision has the potential to transform the people of our church and community to be not just learners about Jesus but true followers of Jesus for generations to come.

With much gratitude to the Holy Spirit and to the men and women who shaped our new, bold vision,

Pastor David

AfterShock Youth Group

“Turning the hearts of youth and families to God and each other”

CCYM (Conference Council in Youth Ministries) camp was a great time for some of our Students as well as Bernice and myself. CCYM takes place at Sacramento Camp and consists of worship, speakers, and student led workshops put on by the CCYM team. There were several mission related work times as well, students put together 700 disaster relief bags for UMCOR and during their workshop time they made small beanie bag type animals from socks to give out to orphaned children. As always the camp food at Sacramento is delicious and there were some fun things to do as well. We all appreciate your prayers for us and for allowing us the opportunity to go.

Good Friday pilgrimage to Tome is coming up March 25th. We will host a lock-in Thursday night for anyone wanting to stay, and will leave the church parking lot at 6am Friday morning to walk to the top of the Tome Hill for a time of fellowship, worship, prayer, and personal reflection. We welcome any and all who wish to make this pilgrimage with us. Dress in layers as it is a little chilly in the morning, wear good walking or hiking shoes, snacks and water are a good idea and the youth will provide some if you don't have your own. This is about a 9-mile hike by the time we go up the hill and back down to the Platt's home for brunch. You may walk only part way or pick us up on the trail if you prefer. We appreciate any donations you might be able to make for the party, and we will take the bus back to the church by about noon. If you have any questions you may contact Marlow and if it is food related you may also contact Tinka or Terry Platt.

The end of an Era: The Roscille Wright Youth Center

I remember the call for anyone interested in helping to re-structure the youth ministry program at PMUMC and was overwhelmed with all the people who showed up at the original lunch meeting. I felt the call to help and joined in with some very amazing people, mostly parents, well moms primarily, who began a new venture with the youth. Jackie Bunkley, Brenda Wolf, Peggy Blackwell, Danene Eager. Dayle, Dave and myself being amongst the male persuasion, and so it began. There was a makeover of the Wright Youth center, which had been dedicated to the oldest member of PMUMC at that time, Roscille, who had always been very active in worship and teaching children and youth in her younger years. We learned as we went, right up until the time that the SPRC chose a Director of Youth Ministries to lead the youth, and we have seen many changes in the Wright Youth Center since. Painting, furniture, décor, taking the center wall out to add the room we needed for growth. We even wrote down our predictions for the future and placed them inside the ductwork at the time of the remodel. Well the time has come to re-purpose the Wright Youth Center into a more needed facility. Code requirements, and age of the building will see it used for more than just a place for the youth to eat dinner. Both Cub and Boy scouts will be able to utilize this area for a much needed area to store and organize their supplies as well as an area for the youth to continue to store supplies for mission trips as well as games and equipment. We thank God for the memories made here, and we appreciate the growth that leads to change and new direction. Roscille would be proud of all the use that this building will continue to get in support of even more ministries. Onward and upward!

Parents and Children Together

It is so good to see more and more families with small children at church! This article is for you! We are inviting you to consider PaCT!

A great group of parents, babies, toddlers and preschoolers have been meeting at Daniel Fernandez Memorial Park, 1103 Hwy 314 in Los Lunas at 10:00 AM- Noon on the third Thursday of the month. This month that will be March 17 at 10 AM at the park, for play & parenting fellowship. All parents, grandparents, or caregivers are invited to join us.

The children play and parents "hang out" together and maybe make plans for the future. We eat at about 11:00 AM and are done at about noon! We ask everyone to bring something to share to add to the meal.

We have also started gathering EVERY Thursday morning at McDonalds in Los Lunas at 10 AM!

Our goal is to create a community of families with young children that will support each other, pray for each other, and reassure each other that we are not alone in the joys and challenges of raising young kids.

If you would like a social and play opportunity with other parents and children, please come and join us! For more information contact Breanne Green at 350-1365, Chris Knox at 865-7864, Pastor David or the church office at 865-9334.

HYMN HISTORY

Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow-1674

“Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.” Ephesians 1:3

Before Charles Wesley or Isaac Watts, there was Thomas Ken, who has been called “England’s first hymnist.” He was born in 1637 in Little Berkhamstead on the fringes of greater London. When his parents died, he was raised by his half-sister and her husband, who enrolled him in Winchester College, an historic boys’ school. Thomas was later ordained to the ministry and returned to Winchester as a chaplain.

To encourage the devotional habits of the boys, Thomas wrote three hymns in 1674. This was revolutionary because English hymns had not yet appeared. Only the Psalms were sung in public worship. Ken suggested the boys use the hymns privately in their rooms.

One hymn was to be sung upon waking, another at bedtime, and a third at midnight if sleep didn’t come. His morning hymn had thirteen stanzas, beginning with:

*Awake, my soul, and with the sun thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth and joyful rise, to pay thy morning sacrifice.*

His evening hymn, equally meaningful, included this verse:

*All praise to Thee, my God, this night, for all the blessings of the light!
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, beneath Thine own almighty wings.*

All three hymns ended with a common stanza, which has since become the most widely sung verse in the world.

Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow; Praise Him, all creatures here below; Praise Him above, ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

In 1680, Thomas was appointed chaplain to England’s King Charles II. It was a thankless job, as Charles kept a variety of mistresses. Once the king asked to lodge a mistress in the chaplain’s residence. Thomas rebuked him, saying, “Not for the King’s Kingdom!” Afterward the king referred to him as “that little man who refused lodging to poor Nellie.”

During the reign of the next king, James II, Thomas, by now a bishop, was sent to the Tower of London for his Protestant convictions. After his release, Thomas retired to the home of a wealthy friend, where he died on March 11, 1711. he was buried at sunrise, and the “Doxology” was sung at his funeral.

Memorial Library*

How about some extra devotional reading during Lent?

The Notman Memorial Library on the second floor of the Community Building is still open between the two church services almost every Sunday or you can obtain a key from the office. We have a great collection that is really worth your time! That collection includes some great titles especially appropriate during the Lenten season: Experiencing the Resurrection by Henry & Melvin Blackaby, On A Hill too Far Away by John Fisher, Jesus Without Religion, by James Rich, No Wonder They Call Him Savior, Chronicles of the Cross, He Chose the Nails, The Angels were Silent and God Came Near, all by Max Lucado, The Cross of Christ by John RW Stott, and The Case for Easter by Lee Strobel. For more information contact Marianne Lynch at 620-7418.

UMW/Mary Circle will meet on March 8, at 9:30 AM in Fellowship Hall for our annual "A Call to Prayer and Self-Denial" program.

How appropriate that this observance is during Lent! In our local unit of UMW we traditionally donate the amount of money it costs us to go out for lunch. The offerings in 2016 will be used to empower women to gain the resources they need to earn a living wage for themselves and their loved ones. Chris Knox will present the "Challenge to Mission" program for the program book followed by plenty of time for prayer before Beverly Nilles serves communion to us.

The UMW Theme for 2016 is "Growing in Blessedness." May we grow during this Lenten season by blessing those who don't get to go out for lunch - through our prayers and monetary donations. In keeping with a spirit of self-denial, Margrace Grotefend will keep the refreshments simple, but we will have plenty of time for sharing and fellowship!

Ladies, come, one and all!! Join us for this special service as an additional way for you to observe Lent and remember what Christ did for you! For more information contact Chris Knox at 865-7864 or the church office.

LOGOS NEWS

WOW we are overwhelmed with the love and support that our congregation has poured out over LOGOS.

Did you know that we have approximately 40 folks from our congregation and also from parents who do not attend our church participating in LOGOS in some way? This is the heartbeat of LOGOS and is why we are not only successful but are growing each week.

We have had 10 new kids register for LOGOS this Semester which has been a result of the kids sharing their positive experiences at LOGOS with their friends and families. Those positive experiences are coming from the staff that work with them each week and from the love that is coming to LOGOS in other forms such as donations, behind the scene tasks, and much, much more.

This could not be taking place without the amazing work of our Lord through all our volunteers and all the church support that LOGOS has been receiving.

And to that end we say.....THANK YOU!

Please come and see what is happening at LOGOS. Just stop in on a Tuesday evening and be part of our mid-week miracle, where the Holy Spirit is flowing through the leaders and the children each week. It is amazing to see our Lord at work through so many hands and feet as well as what He is doing through our children and youth.

May God bless you and keep you and may His face shine upon you all!!!
