Going Beyond Our Walls to Build God's Kingdom

For years, people have given something up for Lent. They have given up chocolate, coffee, sweets, caffeine or even television. The lists could go on and on. Unfortunately, many of these, just like our New Year's resolutions, don't last very long. I want to suggest something else that you could do along with, or instead of, giving up something. Since Lent is a time of reflection to draw us closer to God, I suggest that you add a spiritual practice to replace what you have given up or find a time to add a spiritual practice.

Instead of drinking coffee in the morning spend time reading the Bible or praying. Instead of eating chocolate or something sweet take time to encourage someone. Or, you could get up 30 minutes early in the morning to spend time in prayer. I believe that adding these spiritual habits will draw us closer to God and enable us to grow in our faith and love of God.

I look forward to journeying with you during this Lenten season. God bless you!

In Christ,
Pastor Daniel
